Application to Isles of Scilly

PART V INJURY ALLOWANCES ETC

Interpretation of Part V

33. - (1) In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires, "relevant employment", in relation to any person, means employment -

(a) with a LGPS employer (other than a passenger transport executive) or the predecessor of such an employer; or

(b) in which the person is, by virtue of regulation 5 of the LGPS Regulations (admission agreements) or any corresponding earlier provision, entitled to participate in the benefits of a pension fund maintained under those Regulations or the former regulations; and for the purposes of this Part a police cadet appointed under section 17 of the Police Act 1964 shall be deemed to be in employment with the police authority who maintain the force with which he is undergoing training.

(1A) But "relevant employment" shall not include any period as a councillor member, the Mayor of London or a member of the London Assembly which is treated as employment for the purposes of the LGPS Regulations.

(2) In this Part "the relevant employer", in relation to any person, means -

(a) the employer by whom the person in question was employed immediately before he first qualifies for any allowance or lump sum payable under this Part;

(b) if he dies without qualifying for any such allowance or lump sum, the employer who last employed him in a relevant employment before his death; or

(c) if the employer specified in paragraph (a) or (b) has ceased to exist, the employer to whom he would have been transferred if he had continued in the employment in question.

(3) References in this Part to an injury or disease do not include any injury or disease which is one in respect of which the person is entitled -

(a) to an injury award under a scheme made in accordance with section 26 of the Fire Services Act 1947; or

(b) to injury benefits under regulations made in accordance with section 35 of the Police Act 1964.

(4) For the purposes of this Part, if a person -

(a) sustains an injury while travelling as a passenger by vehicle to or from his place of work with his employer's permission (whether express or implied); and

(b) at the time of the injury the vehicle was being operated (otherwise than in the course of a public transport service) by or on behalf of, or pursuant to arrangements made by, his employer, he shall be treated as having sustained the injury as a result of a requirement of carrying out his work.

Loss of employment through permanent incapacity

34. - (1) If -

(a) as a result of anything he was required to do in carrying out his work a person who is employed in a relevant employment -

- (i) sustains an injury; or
- (ii) contracts a disease; and

(b) he ceases to be employed in that or any other relevant employment as a result of an incapacity which is likely to be permanent and was caused by the injury or disease, he shall be entitled to an annual allowance not exceeding 85 per cent of his annual rate of remuneration in respect of the employment when he ceased to be employed.

(2) The allowance is to be paid by the relevant employer and, subject to paragraph (1), is to be of such amount as that employer may from time to time determine.

(3) In ascertaining for the purposes of paragraph (1) a person's annual rate of remuneration when he ceased to be employed -

(a) the annual rate of any fluctuating element included in his remuneration is to be estimated by reference to an average taken over a representative period;

(b) the annual rate of any benefit in kind included in his remuneration is to be the estimated annual value of the benefit in kind as at the date on which he ceased to be employed;

(c) if at that date -

- (i) he had no remuneration; or
- (ii) his remuneration was reduced because of absence from duty, the annual rate is that which would have applied if he had not been absent;

(d) if at that date he was entitled to an allowance under regulation 35 by reason of a reduction in his remuneration (whether as a result of the same or another injury or disease), the annual rate is that which would have applied if his remuneration had not been reduced;

(e) if his remuneration is calculated by reference to a rate which is not annual, the annual rate is to be derived from the applicable rate at that date; and

(f) if his remuneration is retrospectively altered as a result of a pay award, the annual rate is that based on the award.

(4) The relevant employer may suspend or discontinue the allowance under this regulation if the person becomes capable of working again.

Reduction in remuneration

35. - (1) If -

(a) as a result of anything he was required to do in carrying out his work a person who is employed in a relevant employment -

(i) sustains an injury; or

(ii) contracts a disease, and suffers a reduction in his remuneration while he is employed in that or any other relevant employment; and

(b) regulation 34 does not apply, he shall be entitled to an allowance while the reduction continues.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), a person's remuneration is to be treated as reduced at any time when it is lower than it would have been but for the injury or disease.

(3) The allowance under paragraph (1) is to be paid by the relevant employer and is to be of such amount as the employer may from time to time determine, but must not in any year exceed the shortfall between -

(a) the person's remuneration in the relevant employment; and

(b) the remuneration he would have been paid if he had not sustained the injury or, as the case may be, contracted the disease.

Allowances for pensioners

36. - (1) Where a person ceases to be employed in a relevant employment, if -

(a) immediately before so ceasing he was entitled to an allowance under regulation 35;

(b) on so ceasing regulation 34 does not apply, but he becomes entitled under Part II of the LGPS Regulations to receive payments in respect of an annual retirement pension and regulation 23 of those Regulations (different relevant period for calculating pensionable remuneration where a material reduction has been certified) does not apply; and

(c) the annual rate of the retirement pension in any year falls short of what it would have been if the amount of the allowance paid under regulation 35 during the period which is the final pay period for the LGPS Regulations had been part of his remuneration in the relevant employment, the relevant employer may pay him an allowance (but not of an amount in any year exceeding that shortfall).

(2) An allowance under this regulation continues for such period as the relevant employer may determine.

Death benefits

37. - (1) If -

(a) as a result of anything he was required to do in carrying out his work a person who is employed in a relevant employment

- (i) sustains an injury; or
- (ii) contracts a disease; and

(b) he dies as a result of the injury or disease, then -

(i) subject to paragraph (2), if the deceased leaves a surviving spouse or spouses, or a surviving civil partner, the surviving spouse or all of them, or the surviving civil partner, as the case may be, shall be entitled to an annual allowance or lump sum; and

(ii) if the deceased leaves a dependant, the dependant shall be eligible for an annual allowance or lump sum.

(2) A surviving spouse or civil partner shall not be entitled to an annual allowance or lump sum if at the date of death he was cohabiting with another person outside marriage or civil partnership.

(3) The allowance or lump sum is to be paid by the relevant employer and is to be of such amount as the employer may from time to time determine.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), an allowance to a surviving spouse or civil partner shall cease if he marries or registers a subsequent civil partnership or cohabits with another person outside marriage or civil partnership, but if that marriage, civil partnership or cohabitation ceases the relevant employer may restore the allowance for such period as the employer may determine.

(5) Where the person whom the surviving spouse or civil partner marries, or with whom he forms a civil partnership or cohabits, is also a surviving spouse or surviving civil partner entitled to an allowance under this regulation, only such one of them as they may choose shall be so entitled; and the other shall cease to be so entitled until the end of the marriage, civil partnership or cohabitation.

(6) An allowance to a dependant shall continue for such period as the relevant employer may determine.

Considerations in determining amount of benefits

38. - (1) In determining the amount of an allowance under regulation 34 or 35 or of an allowance or a lump sum under regulation 37, the relevant employer is to have regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the matters specified in paragraph (2) (except in so far as they are excluded by paragraph (3)).

(2) The matters mentioned in paragraph (1) are -

(a) any right to benefit under Part V of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992;

(b) any other statutory right to benefit or compensation;

(c) any right to receive pension benefit (whether payable under an enactment or otherwise); and

(d) any damages recovered and any sum received by virtue of a contract of insurance.

(3) In the case of an allowance or a lump sum which is payable by virtue of a person having sustained an injury, no regard shall be had -

(a) to any benefit payable periodically which the person was entitled to be paid before the injury was sustained;

(b) to any right which accrued before that time; or

(c) to any damages or sum received by virtue of such a right.

PART VI GRATUITIES AS RESPECTS NON-PENSIONABLE SERVICE

Meaning of "service" in Part VI

39. - (1) In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires, "service" is to be construed in accordance with this regulation.

(2) A person's service is the time spent by him in employment with any LGPS employer or former local authority which is not excluded by paragraph (3).

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), a person's service does not include any period -

(a) before he attained the age of 16 or after he attained the age of 70;

(b) in excess of a total of 40 years;

(c) in respect of which a gratuity has been granted under a local Act, section 18 of the Local Government Superannuation Act 1953, the former Regulations, the 1974 Regulations, the 1986 Regulations, Part III of the Local Government (Compensation for Redundancy) Regulations 1994 or these Regulations;

(d) during which he is not a LGPS member by virtue of a failure to apply under regulation 7 of the LGPS Regulations (application for membership) or notification under regulation 7(5) or 8 of those Regulations (which provide respectively for notifications that a person does not wish to become, or, as the case may be, wishes to cease to be a member), or any corresponding act or omission under the 1986 Regulations, unless -

(i) he was employed by a LGPS employer on 1st April 1987 and had attained the age of 55 before that date; or

(ii) he was so employed on 17th August 1993, had attained the age of 50 before that date and immediately before that date was disqualified from being a LGPS member because his contractual hours were fewer than 15;

(e) in respect of which he has retained rights in a scheme which was a relevant scheme for the purposes of regulation G14 of the 1974 Regulations;

(f) which has been or may be taken into account for the purpose of calculating any benefit under the Scheme or any other public service scheme, or which, but for an election by that person on or after 6th April 1988 not to participate in the benefits of such a scheme, might have been so taken into account; or

(g) as a councillor member, the Mayor of London or a member of the London Assembly which is treated as employment for the purposes of the LGPS Regulations.

(4) Where regulation 40(1) applies, service includes periods before 1st April 1987 of the kinds mentioned in paragraph (3)(e) and (f).

(5) In paragraph (3)(f) "public service scheme" means a water company scheme within the meaning of the 1986 Regulations, the Universities' Superannuation Scheme and any occupational pension scheme -

(a) which cannot come into force, or be amended, without the scheme or amendment being approved by a Minister of the Crown or government department; and

(b) which includes provisions for any such whole-time service as is described in regulation F2(1) of the 1986 Regulations, rendered by a person before he becomes entitled to participate in the scheme, to be reckonable as service in respect of which benefits are payable under the scheme.

(6) In paragraph (5) "occupational pension scheme" means any scheme or arrangement comprised in one or more instruments or agreements and having effect (or being capable of having effect) in relation to one or more descriptions or categories of employments so as to provide benefits, in the form of pensions or otherwise, payable on termination of service, on death or on retirement, to or in respect of earners with qualifying service in an employment of any such description or category.

Death in service gratuities

40. - (1) Where a person who has been employed by a LGPS employer for not less than one year dies while in their employment, the LGPS employer may make a discretionary grant ("a death benefit gratuity") to one or more of the person's spouse, surviving civil partner and dependants.

(2) A death benefit gratuity may consist of a lump sum or an annuity or both.

(3) The amount of a death benefit gratuity (including the capital value of any annuity) or, in a case where the gratuity is paid to more than one person, the aggregate amount of such gratuity must not exceed the prescribed maximum.

(4) In this regulation "the prescribed maximum" means 3.75 per cent of the aggregate of -

(a) an amount equal to remuneration at the annual rate for a period equal to the total of the length in years and days of the person's service before 1st April 1987 and 50 per cent of any war service (within the meaning of Part F of the 1986 Regulations) in respect of which a period might have become reckonable as reckonable service under regulation F6 of those Regulations if the conditions in regulation F3(2) to (10) of those Regulations had been satisfied; and

(b) an amount equal to remuneration at the annual rate (with the necessary adjustments in accordance with paragraph (6)), for a period equal to the length in years and days of that person's service after 31st March 1987, but in the case of a person -

(i) whose contractual hours are fewer than 15 and who had not attained the age of 50 on 16th August 1993; or

(ii) whose contractual hours are at least 15 and who had not before 1st April 1987 attained the age of 55, disregarding the assumed membership.

(4A) Paragraph (4) applies to surviving civil partners where after 5th April 1988 a person both -

(a) ceases to be employed; and

(b) is awarded a retirement gratuity.

(5) In this regulation "annual rate of remuneration", in relation to an employee, means the annual rate of his remuneration (ascertained as if regulations 21 to 23 of the LGPS Regulations had applied) at whichever of the following times yields the highest figure -

(a) the date on which he ceased to be employed;

(b) 12 months before that date; or

(c) 24 months before that date.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (4), the necessary adjustments to the annual rate of remuneration are -

(a) if that rate exceeds the annual equivalent of the lower earnings limit in force at the time at which the annual rate of remuneration falls to be ascertained (as determined in accordance with section 5 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992), but not the upper earnings limit then in force (as so determined), to substitute the lower earnings limit; and

(b) if that rate exceeds that upper earnings limit, to substitute the sum of that lower earnings limit and the excess over that upper earnings limit.

(7) In paragraph (4) "the assumed membership", in relation to any person, means any service which would have been counted as part of his total period of membership if the person -

(a) in the case of paragraph (4)(b)(i), had made an election under regulation B1A or regulation B1C of the 1986 Regulations on 17th August 1993; and

(b) in the case of paragraph (4)(b)(ii) -

(i) had made any election which he was entitled to make under regulation B1(18) of, or paragraph 1(1) or 5(2) of Part IV of Schedule 2 to, those Regulations on 1st April 1987; and

(ii) had not made any election he has made under regulation B1(15B) of those Regulations or given any notice he is entitled to give under regulation 8 of the LGPS Regulations.

Retirement gratuities

(a) who has been employed by a LGPS employer for at least five years; or

(b) who has been so employed for at least one year and -

(i) has attained the age of 60; or

(ii) is incapable of discharging efficiently the duties of his employment by reason of permanent ill-health or infirmity of mind or body, ceases to be so employed (otherwise than as mentioned in regulation 42(1)(b)), the LGPS employer may make him a discretionary grant ("a retirement gratuity").

(2) A retirement gratuity may consist of a lump sum or an annuity or both.

(3) The amount of a retirement gratuity (including the capital value of any annuity) must not exceed -

(a) an amount equal to three-eighths of the person's annual rate of remuneration for each year of service; or

(b) the prescribed maximum;

and in this paragraph "annual rate of remuneration" has the meaning given in regulation 40(5) and "the prescribed maximum" the meaning given in regulation 40(4).

(4) Where -

(a) the gratuity granted under paragraph (1) to a person ("the original annuitant") is or includes an annuity; and

(b) he dies at a time when the capital value of the payments of the annuity he has received falls short of its capital value at the time of its grant, the LGPS employer may grant a further gratuity by way of an annuity to one or more of the original annuitant's spouse and dependants.

(4A) Paragraph (4) applies to surviving civil partners where after 5th April 1988 a person both –

(a) ceases to be employed; and

(b) is awarded a retirement gratuity.

(5) The amount of an annuity granted under paragraph (4) or, in a case where an annuity is paid to more than one person, the aggregate amount of annuity must be the lesser of –

(a) the amount the capital value of which equals the shortfall mentioned in paragraph (b) of that paragraph; or

(b) two-thirds of the amount of the annuity payable to the original annuitant immediately before his death.

Redundancy gratuities

42. - (1) Where a person -

(a) has been employed by a LGPS employer -

(i) for at least five years; or

(ii) in the case of a person who has attained the age of 60, for at least one year;

(b) ceases to be so employed -

(i) by reason of redundancy; or

(ii) in the interests of the efficient exercise of the LGPS employer's functions; and

- (c) the LGPS employer -
 - (i) have certified in relation to him in accordance with regulation 26(1)(b) of the LGPS Regulations; or
 - (ii) are satisfied that if he were a LGPS member they would have so certified, the LGPS employer may make him a discretionary grant ("a redundancy gratuity").

(2) A redundancy gratuity may consist of a lump sum or an annuity or both.

(3) Where –

(a) the gratuity granted to a person under paragraph (1) is or includes an annuity; and

(b) he dies before receiving payments of the annuity of an aggregate amount equal to its capital value, the LGPS employer may grant a further gratuity by way of an annuity to one or more of the person's spouse and dependants.

(4) Where -

(a) the gratuity granted to a person under paragraph (1) is or includes an annuity; and

(b) he dies at a time when the capital value of the payments of the annuity he has received falls short of its capital value at the time of its grant, the LGPS employer may grant a further gratuity by way of an annuity to one or more of his spouse and dependants.

(4A) Paragraphs (3) and (4) apply to surviving civil partners where after 5th April 1988 a person both –

(a) ceases to be employed; and

(b) is awarded a redundancy gratuity.

(5) The amount of a redundancy gratuity in respect of any person (including the capital value of any annuity) or, in a case where the gratuity is paid to more than one person, the aggregate amount of such gratuity must not exceed the prescribed maximum (as defined in regulation 40(4)).

(6) The capital value of an annuity granted under paragraph (4) or, in a case where an annuity is paid to more than one person, the aggregate amount of such annuities must not exceed the shortfall mentioned in paragraph (4)(b).

(7) Where a person to whom a further gratuity is granted under paragraph (4) dies at a time when the capital value of the payments of the annuity he has received falls short of its capital value at the time of its grant, the LGPS employer may grant a further gratuity by way of an annuity to any other person to whom they might have granted a further annuity under paragraph (4) at the time of the original annuitant's death, but its capital value must not exceed that shortfall.

Schemes in connection with the exercise of powers

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These regulations consolidate, with amendments, the provisions of the Local Government (Compensation for Premature Retirement) Regulations 1982, Part II of the Local Government (Compensation for Redundancy and Premature Retirement) Regulations 1984 and Part II of the Local Government (Compensation for Redundancy) Regulations 1994, all of which have been amended. They also revoke the extant Parts K and L of the Local Government Superannuation Regulations 1986. Parts V and VI of these regulations replace them as part of local authority discretionary awards. These Regulations contain all the provisions relating to discretionary payments that may be made to persons engaged in local government employment other than teachers and those engaged in the police and fire services (excluding those under Part III of the Local Government (Compensation for Redundancy) Regulations 1994).

The main changes are as follows –

- provision for holders of a joint appointment whose appointment has been terminated because the other ceased to hold his appointment may now be considered for a discretionary award under Part III (Regulation 6(1)(a)(iii));
- all the service of a part-timer can be taken into account when considering an award on compensatory added years (Regulation 7(3));
- spouses of post retirement marriages of employees awarded compensatory added years may receive part of the compensation pension (Regulation 20);
- the "indexed training rate" has been updated (Regulation 25(6));
- interest is to be paid on compensation paid late in certain circumstances (Regulation 30);
- the appropriate authority has two months in which to recover from the employing authority the amount of any payment made on their behalf (Regulation 31(2));
- injury allowances and gratuities, which were in the Local Government Superannuation Regulations 1986, have been included in these regulations as they are payable by the local authorities and not from the pension fund (Parts V and VI).
