Dear Colleague

LOCAL GOVERNMENT PENSION SCHEME (SCOTLAND) REGULATIONS 1998

I enclose an extension table we have received from the Government Actuary's Department, for ages 71 to 80, to the factors in their Guidance Note dated 15 June 1998 (issued under my letter of 22 June 1998) for Regulation 136 cases.

Yours sincerely

Mrs R A Stewart

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT PENSION SCHEME

AUGMENTATION OF SERVICE - REGULATION 136

EXTENSION TO AGES OVER 70 OF THE FACTORS IN APPENDIX 1
TO GUIDANCE NOTE DATED 15 JUNE 1998

Appendix 1 - Member's Pension and Contingent Spouse's Pension
Augmentation of Service for Past Leavers

The factors below are to be used for calculating the appropriate sum to be paid where an employing authority augments the service of a past leaver under Regulation 136.

Age next birthday of member	Male members		Female members
	Factor for personal pension of 1 p.a.	Factor for contingent spouse's pension of 1 p.a.	Factor for personal pension of 1 p.a.	Factor for contingent spouse's pension of 1 p.a.
71	9.24	3.06	10.65	0.76
72	8.87	3.01	10.24	0.73
73	8.49	2.95	9.83	0.70
74	8.13	2.87	9.43	0.66
75	7.77	2.78	9.02	0.62
76	7.42	2.69	8.62	0.58
77	7.07	2.58	8.23	0.53
78	6.74	2.46	7.85	0.49
79	6.41	2.34	7.48	0.44
80	6.10	2.20	7.12	0.39

Notes

- (1) The calculation of the appropriate sum for cases under Regulation 136 is described in paragraphs 15 and 16 of the Guidance Note.
- (2) Different, higher, factors would be appropriate for calculating the appropriate sum in respect of the personal pension of a member over age 70 whose service is augmented under Regulation 51.
